Spotswood Hotel,

RICHMOND, Va., August, 1865.

IT having been reported that the Spotswood Hotel had been confiscated and closed, the proprietors deem it proper to assure the Public that such is not the case. The House is open for the accommodation of visitors, as it has been from its opening day in September, 1860.

The House has been remodeled, renovated, refurnished, and put in perfect order throughout, and the traveling public may rest assured of finding as comfortable accommations with us as can be found in any first class Hotel, North or South.

Our friends, patrons, and the travelling public generally, visiting Richmond, are cordially invited to make their home with us, and no pains will be spared to make them comfortable, as we are pledged to sustain the well known reputation of the House.

Our former patrons will find the old employees of the House still in our service, were they will be pleased to welcome them as formerly.

Pioneer Line of Steamers,

—FOR—

THE COMMODIOUS STEAMERS

PIONEER AND COMMODORE ADAMS,

Will leave New Berne for Norfolk on TUESDAY of each week at 8 o'clock, A M, connecting with the different lines of steame for the above-named points. Shippers of Goods w receive every facility and accommodation for the transportation of the same, as arrangements have been made with the different companies to forward goods to this line at low rates and without delay. Each of these steamers are capable of carrying through the canal without difficulty, as they were built expressly for the trade. They are fitted up with STATE ROOMS and BERTHS capable of accommodating thirty five passengers. Every attention will be paid to the comfort of passengers, who will not be subject to the inconvenience of transfer to other vessels, but will be taken through direct without change.

The tables of the steamers are liberally supplied with the best the market affords. Families travelling will find it to their interest to take this line, as they will thereby escape the danger and discomfort of a sea route, and the fatigue of railroad travel.

On the 15th of December next, if the business of the line warrants it, the steamer WILLIAMS will be put on the route, and tri-weekly trips will be made.

For freight or passage apply to WHITFORD, DILL & CO., New Berne, N. C.

New Skirt For 1866.

The Great Invention of the Age in HOOP SKIRTS.

J. W. BRADLEY'S New Patent DUPLEX ELLIPTIC (or double) SPRING SKIRT.

THIS INVENTION consists of DUPLEX (or two) ELLIPTIC PURE REFINED STEEL SPRINGS, ingeniously braided tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most flexible, elastic and durable SPRING ever used. They seldom bend or break, like the Single Spring, and consequently preserve their perfect and beautiful Shape more than twice as long as any single spring skirt that ever has or can be made.

The wonderful flexibility and great comfort experienced particularly in all crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm Chairs, for Promonade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small place as easily and conveniently as a Silk or Muslin Dress.

A Lady having Enjoyed the Pleasure, Comfort and Great convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all others.

The Hoops are covered with 2 ply double twisted thread and will wear twice as long as the single yarn covering which is used on all Single Hoop Skirts. The three bottom rods on every Skirt are also Double Steel, and twice or double covered to prevent the covering from wearing off the rods when dragging down stairs, stone steps etc., etc, which they are constantly subject to when in use.

All are made of the new and elegant Corded Tapes, and are the best quality in every part, giving to the wearer the most graceful and perfect Shape possible, and are unquestionably the lightest, most desirable, comfortable and economical Skirt ever made.

☞ For sale in all first-class stores in this City, and throughout the United States and Canada, Havana de Cuba, Mexico, South America and the West Indies.

Late Papers.

Salisbury Dec. 11th 1865. tfd-169.

To the Citizens of North-Carolina.

The termination of a sanguinary contest, which for the past four years has presented an impassable barrier to all social or commercial intercourse between the two great sections of our country, having at length happily cleared away all obstacles to a removal of those relations which formerly bound us together in a fraternal union, I take the earliest opportunity afforded me by this auspicious event, to greet my Southern friends, and to solicit from them a renewal of that extensive business connection which for a quarter of a century has been uninterrupted save by the great public calamity to which I have adverted.

It is scarcely necessary, on the threshold of a business re-union, I should repeat the warning so often given to my friends,—to beware of all those spurious and deleterious compounds which, under the specious and false titles of Imported Wines, Brandies, Holland Gin, Liquors, &c., have been equally destructive to the health of our citizens as prejudicial to the interests of the legitimate Importer.

Many years of my past life have been expended in an open and candid attempt to expose these wholesale frauds; no time nor expense has been spared to accomplish this salutary purpose, and to place before my friends and the public generally, at the lowest possible market price, and in such quantities as might suit their convenience, a truly genuine imported article.

Twenty-five years' business transaction with the largest and most respectable exporting houses in France and Great Britian have afforded me unsurpassed facilities for supplying our home market with Wines, Liquors, and Liqmures of the best and most approved brands in Europe, in addition to my own distillery in Holland for the manufacture of the "Schiedam Schnapps."

The latter, so long tested and approved by the medical Faculties of the United States, West Indies and South America as an invaluable Therapeutic, a wholesome, pleasaht, and perfectly safe beverage in all climates and during all seasons, quickly excited the cupidity of the home manufacturers and venders of a spurious article under the same name.

I trust that I have, after much toil and expense, surrounded all my importations with safeguards and directions which with ordinary circumspection will inshure their delivery, as I receive them from Europe, to all my customers.

I would however, recommend in all cases where it is possible, that orders be sent direct to my Depot. 22 Beaver Street, New York, or that purchases be made of my accredited agents.

In addition to a large stock of Wines, Brandies, &c. in wood, I have a considerable supply of old tried foreign wines, embracing vintages of many past years, bottled up before the commencement of the war, which I can especialy recommended to all connaisseurs of these rare luxuries.

In conclusion, I wotld especially call the earley attention of my Southern customers to the advantage to be derived by transmitting their orders without loss of time, of time, or calling personally at the Depot, in order to inshure the fulfilment of their favors from the present large and well selected assortmemt.

A LULL.

The Legislature has adjourned after "resoluting" and electing officers to their hearts content. We understand that it was not thought advisable to pass new laws or amend old ones, except what was absolutely demanded by the exigencies of the times. We published the captions on yesterday, and from those it will be seen that but little of substantial legislation saving the passage of the Constitutional Amendment abolishing slavery, was done. It will be recollected that the Banner was the first paper in the State to advocate its passage. In Congress, matters appear to be somewhat at a stand-still. The question of the most direct and immediate interest to us, the recognition of our representatives is still in abeyance in gremio legis, that is, the committee room. When the committee reports, then we shall have probably one of the ablest discussions ever produced in the American Congress. The question of the effect of the President's pardon, upon the rights of property of the pardoned citizen, is being argued before the Supreme Court of the United States. The constitutionality of the test oath will also probably engage the attention of this august tribunal.—Speaking of law points, we see that Judge Fowle has recently held on a habeas corpus, that the provisional courts have no jurisdiction of offenses, committed before the inauguration of the Provisional Government. We have a rumor (probably G.-V.) that our relations with France are not entirely harmonious and on the regular wire comes the news of a recent victory of the radicals over the Imperialists; but that it turned out a barren one at least. A more significant item affecting us practically, is the advertisements to be found in all our exchanges of goods offered at cost; this looks like there was a financial breeze blowing up. Everything is quiet, peaceful and serene. Indeed, there is a perfect lull in news.

AN EDITOR ARRESTED.

We see that Bro. Robinson of the Fayetteville News has been arrested for the publication of articles offensive to the military authorities.

We regret very much that Bro. Robinson should have felt called upon, to write anything which could fairly be construed to offend. An editor should be as cautious in what he writes as a woman in what she speaks. When he states facts, he ought to be well assured that there is no mistake, and he should never indulge in injurious reflections unless absolutely demanded, by what he conceives to be the public welfare. To pursue the exact line of duty and honor, is indeed difficult at all times, but more especially at present, not however for fear of saying too much, as too little. The newspapers are, just now a faint reflex of public sentiment. Every one, and of course editors, are apt to imbibe something of the popular spirit which surrounds them—it is as it were "catching," and while under even the temporary influence of such a malady, the editor may write matters "not proper to be written."

Bro. Robinson wields a ready pen and indulges sometimes in useless sarcasm, but we are satisfied that he means no wrong, and would, no doubt, have refrained from so doing at all, had he been made aware of the injurious tendency of his articles. We have not learned the articles which have called for reprobation from the authorities, but earnestly trust that Bro. R. may be convinced of any of his errors when pointed out, and with the present reminder may abstain from their repetition, if allowed to resume. We feel confident that the military authorities are not disposed to suppress the publication of any fair and dignified commentary on public affairs, so long as the writer abstains from personal abuse or unjust and unfounded satire.

At the Freewill Baptist General Conference at Lewistown, Me., a short time since, a resolution prohibiting the ordination of ministers who use tobocco was adopted.

Latest News.

New York, Dec. 16.—There is but little of interestor importance to report.

The dissensions amongst the Fenians continue to rage with unabated fury. Both O'Mahoney and the Senate seem inclined to stand their ground.—The Congress of the Brotherhood, called by O'Mahoney, will, at least, partially assemble on the 2d of January next. Stevens, the Head Centre, or President of the Irish Republic, is expected to arrive here shortly. Indeed, some rumors are afloat to the effect that he has already landed in New York.

The Strong divorce case stands adjourned until Monday next. It will probably occupy the whole of next week, and from present appearances, the defence is likely to win.

The weather here is very cold, with indications of snow. The skating season was inaugurated this morning by the opening of the Fifth Avenue skating pond and skating grounds in Brooklyn. A large number of ladies participated in the sport.

Everything is quiet, especially in the political world.

The money market closed at seven per cent. on call. Gold closed quiet, at 146 a 146 1-4.

Our Washington Dispatch.

Washington, Dec. 16.—The Mexican Minister has received official advices from Matamoras, dated the 10th inst. They state that Escobado had taken the city of Monterey and held it some time, but two strong French columns were sent after him, and he had finally to abandon it. It is reported that he repulsed one of the French divisions which attacked him.

Ex-Senator Corwin was attacked with paralysis at a social gathering on Thursday night. He was in a precarious condition, and the latest accounts give no hope of his recovery.

There was a large crowd of visitors at the White House to-day, including many Senators and Representatives.

A proposition will soon be introduced into Congress to deliver up the charter of Washington City, with a view of getting rid of the question of negro suffrage.

Seventy-five clerks will be discharged from the Treasury Department at the end of the month, on the charge of incompency. The applicants for the vacancies are already innumerable.

The President has received a dispatch from Provisional Governor Johnson, of Georgia, dated Milledgeville, the 15th instant, stating that the Legislature would take a recess on the 15th of January, without electing Senators. He says: "Governor Jenkins was inaugurated yesterday. You will be pleased with his address. I feel confident there will be entire harmony between him and yourself.

The Jamaica Rebellion.

New York, Dec. 16.—The steamship Montezuma, from Kingston, Jamaica, arrived to day, bringing advices to the 6th inst., which is fifteen days later news. The only papers received by her are those which support the policy of the Jamaica administration. The news is scanty. At the last advices the number of negroes executed is estimated at from two to four thousand, and the land is said to be offensive with corpses. No evidence has appeared to support the statements previously made that the revolt was the result of a long-projected plot, having ramifications in New York, Hayti, and Cuba. Various legislative measures have been introduced, of which the following were prominent: A loan of fifty thousand pounds, to meet the expense of extinguishing the rebellion; bill to preserve the public worship of God from scandalous abuses; bill to provide against unauthorized drilling, and a bill suspending the present constitution, abolishing the House of Assembly and Legislative Council, and providing for a Legislative Chamber, to be composed solely of nominees of the Crown. The second named bill meets much opposition from respectable societies.

Milledgeville, Ga., Dec. 15.—Gov. Jenkins was inaugurated to-day. In his address he said that there would be no conflict between the Constitutions of Georgia and of the United States. He regarded the laws of the United States as supreme. He paid a tribute to the conduct of the negroes during the war, and said that they must be protected in their persons and property and have the right to enter the Courts.

At the close of the inaugural address, the seal of State was handed to him by Provisional Governor Johnson. The sentiments expressed by Gov. Jenkins are cordially approved by the Legislature.

New York, Dec. 15.—The Fortress Monroe correspondent of the Herald gives an interesting account of a visit paid to Jefferson Davis by his old spiritual adviser the pastor of St. Paul's Church Richmond, who passed the entire day of Thursday with the Ex-President of the C. S. A. The interview was most satisfactory, Mr. Davis exhibiting the utmost patience and resignation under his distressful circumstances. The sacrament was administered to him, the Scriptures read by his old religious teacher, and faithful admonitions delivered. Mr. Davis' only spiritual adviser heretofore has been the post chaplain, Rev. Mr. Chevois.

Nashville, Dec. 16.—The Legislature of Tennessee having refused to allow negro testimony to be taken in the courts of this State, Gen. Fiske, Superintendent of the Freedman's Bureau of this district, under the special orders from the War Department has issued an order which demands that all cases in which negro testimony is involved, and which have heretofore been disposed of by municipal authority, shall be brought before the court for adjudication.

New Orleans, Dec. 14.—Gen. Scott has arrived here, and the customary salute was fired in his honor.

A citizen, who returned recently from Matamoras, and who was intimate with the people and the French officers at that place, says that the latter apprehend a war between France and the United States.—[There is, however, no apprehension in Washington.— Washington Reporter.]

St. Louis, Dec. 16.—The ice-gorge in the river gave way to-day, and the ice swept past the city with tremendous power. A dozen steamers and a number of barges was sunk or seriously damaged, involving a total loss of about $300.000. The danger to the remaining boats is still imminent.

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 16.—The Governor, in his Message to the Legislature, recommends the pardon of Hon. Wm. E. Simms and others; also, that a general law be passed pardoning all persons indicted in the State courts for treason.

Washington, Dec. 17.—The State Department has been officially notified of the ratification of the constitutional amendment by the Legislatures of the States of Georgia and Alabama.

Major General Gustavus W. Smith, who resigned the position of Street Superintendent in New York to go South, and who resigned his commission in the Confederate army two years afterwards, has re appeared in New York, as agent for the National Express Company.

SENATE.

Thursday, December 14.

Senate called to order. Journal of yesterday read, and Senate proceeded to the transaction of business.

Mr. A. J. Jones from the committee to whom was referred the subject of the Stay law, reported back the bill, and asked to be discharged from the further consideration of the same till the 1st Monday in February next.

Mr. Harris of Rutherford, from the committee to whom was referred the subject of sealing Confederate money, reported a bill, establishing such a scale.

On motion of Mr. Morehead, ordered to be printed.

Mr. Bynum, from the committee to whom was referred the bill relative to the burning of records, &c., reported the same back to the Senate.

Bill incorporating Durham Academy in the county of Orange, was read a 3rd time and passed.

Mr. Warren, from the committee to whom was referred a resolution in favor of guardians, reported the same back to the Senate and asked to be discharged from its further consideration.

On motion of Bynum, the rules were suspended, and the bill relative to the destruction of public records was read a second and third times and passed.

Mr. W D. Jones introduced a resolution in favor of Briggs & Dodd, which was passed.

Bill concerning advancements, passed three times.

Bill revoking certain bills, was read second and third time, and passed.

Message received from the House transmitting the Senate bill extending the time for registering deeds, with an amendment, striking out two years and inserting three years. Concurred in by the Senate.

Mr. Howard, from the judicialy committee, reported back the bill relative to clerks and sheriffs recently elected, with amendments, and recommended its passage. The rules were suspended, and the bill was read third time and passed.

Message received from the House disagreeing to the Senate bill abolishing the office of Auditor, as passed by the Senate, and asking for a committee of conference. Concurred in.

Bill to incorporate Eno Lodge was read first time.

Bill for the relief of holders of State bonds issued in 1861—[bill provides that bonds issued in 1861 be cancelled and new bonds be issued. The bonds in question were issued upon an act passed previous to the war, and are for the benefit of the Wilmington road]—read second time and referred to proper committee.

Committee on Deaf, Dumb and Blind made an extended report as to the condition, &c., of said institution, with a resolution concerning the same, which was passed.

Mr. Wilson, from the committee to inquire what laws are in force, asked that the further consideration thereof be postponed to 1st February next.

The hour of twelve o'clock having arrived, the Speaker announced the special order—the reports of the committee touching Constitutional Amendments.

The report of the committee was read a second time, when Mr. Bynum offered an amendment, as follows:

Resolved by the General Assemaly of the State of North Carolina, That the amendments to the Constitution of the United Stotes, adopted and ratified by the General Assembly at its present session in the following words, to wit:

SEC. 1. Neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime, whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall exist within the United States, or any place subject to their jurisdiction.

SEC. 2. Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

[AMENDMENT.]—Has been adopted and ratified in the sense given to it by the Hon. Wm. H. Seward, Secretary of State of the United States, to wit: That it does not enlarge the powers of Congress to legislate on the subject of freedmen within the States.

Mr. Warren opposed the adoption of the resolution as useless—calculated to do no good, but might be productive of much harm.

Mr. McLean addressed the Senate in behalf of the resolution, at length.

Pending the debate, a proposition was received from the House to go into an election at 1 o'clock to-day for a Comptroller of State. Concurred in, and the hour having arrived, the consideration of the above resolution was laid on the table.

The Senate proceeded to vote for Comptroller. Mr. A. C. Cowles received 21 votes, Mr. Brogden 12, Mr. Collins 12.

The Senate then resumed the consideration of the resolutions on federal relations, when Mr. Morehead moved to make them the special order for to-morrow, 10 o'clock, which was agreed to.

A message was received from the House of Commons transmitting a programme for the exercises of administering the oath of office to the Governor elect to-morrow at 12 o'clock, which was concurred in.

The bill to prevent horse stealing was read a second time and discussed at length by Messrs. Morehead, Warren, Howard, Leach, Gash and W. D. Jones, on a proposition to amend by modifying the penalty.

Mr. Howard moved to refer to the committee on the judiciary, which did not prevail.

The amendment was then rejected; whereupon Mr. Warren moved to lay the bill on the table, and on this motion, the yeas and nays were called, and resulted yeas 15, nays 27.

Mr. Howard then moved to amend by making the penalty for the first, whipping, and for the second offense, death by hanging. And on this motion, the yeas and nays were demanded, and resulted yeas 33, nays 12.

Then on motion of Mr. Morehead, the bill was laid on the table.

Senate then adjourned till to-morrow morning 10½ o'clock.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

Thursday, December 14.

The Speaker called the House to order—prayer by the Rev. Henry Hardie.

REPORTS.

By Mr. Wands, for the committee on private bills, reported back bill for the relief of Jesse Bryce; asked that it might be referred to the committee on the judiciary, and it was so referred.

By Mr. Manly, for the Judiciary committee.

Also, on the bill to elect by the people, clerks and masters in equity, and the bill concerning the revival of judgments.

Report whole number of votes 153, necessary to election 87, that Mr. Cowles 66, and Mr. Collins 7, and that Mr. Brogden having received the requisite majority, was duly elected.

On motion of Mr. Paschall the House adjourned.

INAUGURAL ADDRESS OF GOV. WORTH.

Gentleman of the Senate and of the House of Commons:

If I were about to enter on the discharge of my duties, you would expect me, according to usage, on this occasion to declare my views on some of the subject's likely to require exeexecutive action.

As the ordinance of the Convention under which I have been elected, provides that I am not to act until the Provisional Government shall be discontinued—and as that discontinuance may not occur, during my official term, I deem it premature and inappropriate to discuss subjects on which I may not be allowed to take action.

I regard it, however, as a fit occasion for me to declare that the people of North Carolina, impoverished by the late disolating war, and discouraged by the uncertainties of the future, ardently desire a restoration of the Union, and of civil government. The animosities which brodueed and grew out of the war, on our part, arerapidly passing away. All good and wise men feel that the common good of our whole country requaired the suppression of the sectional criminations and recriminations, from which have sprung our national calamities. I am sure that the great body of our people desire that national amity shall be restored. Such, I am assured and beleive, is the general feeling among those we lately called our foes, Such is peculiarly the care amongst the brave men who periled their lives in the respective armies, lately engaged in mortal combat. The brave are always generous.

Admonished by the recent past, I deply the virtue of this great nation will not again surrender itself to the guidance of turbulent sectional readers.

I am sure all our people, if now admitted into full communion with the United States, upon the trems prescribed by the President, (withall which terms we have fully complied,) would perform all their Constitutional obligations with as much fidelity as any people in the Union. Unfounded distrust will not beget kindness and confidence.—We ought to be judged by our acts. To them I appeal for the verification of my assertions.

We honor the generous magnanimity and elevated statesmanship exhibited in the President's plan of reconstruction. It looks to the permanent good of the whole nation, and in view of the appalling difficulties with which he was surrounded, is probably the wisest practicable plan which could be devised. We have promptly, and almost unanimously, complied with all its provisions, by declaring our ordinances of secession null and void, by amending our constitution abolishing slavery, repudiating our war debt, ratifying the amendment to the constitution of the United States forever prohibiting slavery in the States, and by solemnly taking an oath renewing our allegiance to the United States. If all these acts are held insufficient to entitled us to confidence, we can scarcely hope to do anything which will be held satisfactory. I will vouch for North Carolina if not driven to despair by ungenerous distrust. She will grasp the hand of reconciliation if offered with generous magnanimous confidence.

I return to the people of North Carolina my most profound thanks for distinguished honor they have done me in electing me as their chief magistrate, and if I shall be called upon to perform the duties of the position, I shall most fervently implore the Giver of all good to inspire me with ability to discharge my duties in a manner acceptable to the State, and promotive of the best interests of the people.

Random Thoughts from a Random Gun.

G. C. Mc.—FIRST FIRE.

In accordance with the command, we tip our cap, and with low, beg to introduce our random gun to the kind feelings of the generous reader. Our first fire is introductory and explanatory and explanative—giving the bearing, range and calibre, with a description.

Its situation is in Western Carolina, the Switzerland of America, noted for its picturesque scenery, genial clime and fair elphin nymphs—the naids and dryads of

"Beauty's capital has gathered
Her every amber chivalry."

Here, on the heights of the hills of observation, we have erected our random gun, on the pivot of understanding, having a complete panorama of the busy hum and movements of life. It is a hows-it-sir in plan and style, penetrating into the actions of mankind in an inquisitive and investigative manner. The chemical agents which compose its amunition are passion, caprice, eccentricity and pathos which are gathered in abundance on the busy dents of life, churches, towns, railroads, &c., by Mr. Notes, a grave, sedate old fellow in general appearance, but who has not yet entered the shady gloom of bachelorism. It is very combustible and often ignites on the slightest application of friction, exploding human events with a blunder-buss, leaving the fragments scattered over the well-cultivated bowers of conversation, to be gathered by the curious and inquisitive, for the philosophical investigation of Mr. Reason. Its etiology and pathological effect will give the reader a concise diagnosis and serve to govern his prognosis as to its future bearing, range, calibre and general career.

With the Union Banner waving in the gentle breeze of prosperity over our ramparts, we touch the match—the "grey goose quill"—plucked from the proud bird of Jove, and let it belch forth upon the busy hum of life while we fall back on our reserve to prepare for another volley, reminding the gentle reader, that,

"He who fights and runs away,
May live to fight another day."

Newton, N. C., Dec. 14, 1865.

NEWTON, N. C., Dec 14, 1865.

Editor Banner:—At a meeting held in this place on the 9th inst., for the purpose of the re-organization of the militia, in accordance with an ordinance of the so-called Convention, the following officers were elected, viz: M. S. Deal, Capt. Julius Gaither, Lieut; the other names we have forgotten. We are glad to be able to chronicle this emolument of honor bestowed on Capt. Deal. From a love of country, he was among the first to offer his services to his country during the late war, and no higher enconium can be bestowed upon him than to say, that he saw the Confederate flag trail in the dust before he gave his country up. He was promoted to the Captaincy of Company E. 12th N. C. Regiment, which office he held until the close of the war.

Render honor to whom honor is due.

A KENTUCKY REPRESENTATIVE REFUSES TO TAKE HIS SEAT.

Harvey Myers, to whom was awarded the certificate of election as representative to the Legislature from Kenton county, Ky., has declined to take his seat and resigned. The reasons he gives are that the election was unfair; that many citizens were arrested by armed soldiers, and many more intimidated from voting by said military. He avows he cannot lend his sanction or approval to such proceedings. Mr. Myers is however, a candidate for the house place, and will, no doubt, be elected at the special election ordered.

The records of representative government may be searched in vain for a parallel to the above. Under the operation of General Palmer's military administration of the late election, as under all military elections, the elective franchise was, of course, a farce.—In this there is nothing remarkable. But that a man could be found, who, though receiving the benefit of this illegal interference, felt such disgust at its monstrous invasion of the people's rights, as to decline availing himself of it is a spectacle of public virtue that is indeed miraculous. And all this, be it remembered, happens in loyal Kentucky, where there is a loyal administration, a loyal people. loyal and accepted representatives in Congress; where, what Mr. Lincoln called "the Constitutional relations of the State to the Union," are all established and recognized.

The Southern Congressional delegates now in the United States, may be excused for exhibiting little urgency for annexation.

PROCLAMATION.

By W. W. Holden, Provisional Governor of North Carolina.

WHEREAS, IT HAS BEEN REPRESENTED to me that there is an urgent necessity in many of the Counties of this State, that funds should be raised by taxation for the support of the poor: Now, therefore, I, W. W. Holden, Provisional Governor of the State of North Carolina, by virtue of the power vested in me, do hereby proclaim and declare—

That a majority of the Provisional Justices of the Peace in any County in this State are hereby empowered and authorized to impose such a tax as in their judgment may be indispensable to the support of the poor; said tax to be levied, collected, and accounted for, and used in accordance with the provisions of Chapters 24 and 81, Revised Code of North Carolina.

Provisional officers whose duty it is to execute the orders of the Provisional Justices, are hereby commanded to be prompt in the performance of their duty under this proclamation.

Done at our City of Raleigh, on the 9th day of December one thousand [L. S.] eight hundred and sixty-five, the year of the independence of the United States the 90[illegible]

OUR CONTEMPORARY.

We regret to see that Bro. Cole does not appreciate our editorial compliments in quoting and commenting on an article from the New York News, if we understand his drift. We regret that our compliments extended in so delicate a manner should not have been understood, and if Bro. Cole thinks our compliments are either worthless or injurious, we can abstain; at the same time we would inform Bro. THE LATEST AND GREATEST Discovery in Dental Hygenic, is SOZODONT. It has superseded all the ordinary dentifrices, and, for this reason; that while it contains no solvent principle injurious to the enamel of the teeth, it obliterates tartar and every other dental concretion, prevents canker of the gums, removes blemishes, both from the molars and incisors, and leaves the breath pure and sweet.

Editors on the Message.

About four hundred editorials upon the President's Message, from as many journals in the United States, have been received at the White House. About ninety nine per centum of all these essays heartily endorse the policy pursued by the President in the past, and approve and commend the measures he proposes for the future.

Seventy-five dollars are given by Government to each soldier who needs a wooden leg.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE.

I OFFER for sale a small Tract of Land situated on the N. C R. R, 2½ miles South of Salisbury. This Tract contains about 300 acres, more or less, 60 of which has been recently clared and is fresh, and new, and exceedingly fertile—a part of the 60 acres is high meadow land, and constitutes about half of the whole arable land now cleared. The meadow may be used for sereal or grass purposes, and is equally valuable for both. The ballance of the land is well timbered with virgin growth and convenient to a good market. There is also a "Gold Mine" of tested value on the same Tract, to which I propose to attach 30 acres or more of wooded land, which I propose to sell seperately. I shall remain in Salisbury for two weeks, where I shall be happy to treat with any person wishing to purchase, after which time I shall intrust the sale of the above to the care of Col. B. Craige my accounted agent. The purchaser can have the benefit of supplying himself with 60 bbls of corn and all of the farming implements &c. necesary to conduct the farm.

PROSPECTUS.

THE publication of the NORTH CAROLINA PRESBYTERIAN will be resumed in Fayetteville, on Weduesday 2d January next.

Confidently relying upon the hearty suport which we have heretofore received, we shall endeavor to render the paper more attractive, both in appearance and matter, than it has ever been, sparing neither pains nor expense, in the accomplishment of this purpose.

With the passing away of old things, a new spirit of activity, energy and enterprise has been infused into every department of secular thought and business. Why should not the CHURCH, partake of this progressive advancement? Why should she, of all the agencies, brought to bear with such tremendous force upon the civilization of the present time, be inefficient, laggard and almost hopeless, in the working out of her own destiny?

To arouse the CHURCH to the importance and necessity of WORK: of unceasing, restless, tireless energy in the service of her Master and Head; this shall be our first and chiefest aim. In this we need assistance. We are not alone, sufficient for these things. Our brethren must help us in every way; contributions from their own stores of thought and study; by zealous co-operation in a common cause for the benefit of all; by extending our circulation throughout all our borders, and thus giving us both the means and the opportunity of performing well the work to which we have consecrated all that we have, and all that we hope for on the earth.

To the People of the South!

THE OLD

"EXAMINER" REVIVED!!

The undersigned, having purchased its good will and subscription books, proposes to revive, at an early day, the old Richmond Examiner, of which the late John M. Daniel was editor-in-chief, and the undersigned his constant associate for the entire period of the war.

It is believed that the public will recognize an appropriate and practical idea in this enterprise.—Efforts to revive other papers in the South are announced, and it is certainly neither a visionary nor unworthy endeavour for the literary associates of a gallant spirit that now sleeps in the grave to essay honour to his memory and a service to the public by reviving the old Examiner newspaper, so long the ornament of Southern letters, an example at once of the scholarship and chivalry of Virginia; and perhaps the only school in the South of pure and classick English distinct from the models and redeemed from the innovations of Northern instructors.

The fame of the old Richmond Examiner reached to the most distant parts of the world. The paper was well known in Europe. It was pronounced by a distinguished Northern politician "the best exponent of the civilization of the South." It was a school of literary scholarship for the youth of the South; the glass of Southern chivalry; an example of independence, of courage, of iron spirit in newspaper literature, which its chief illustrated in his own noble and severe life, and defended more than once on the field of honor, when the undersigned stood with in the vindication of the freedom of the press.

Surely there are many people in the South who will unite in an effort to revive a newspaper which was an ornament to its literature and a school for its virtues. The task is an ambitions one. But the undersigned attempts it in no mean or flagging spirit. He has already undertaken to marshal a corps of the old writers for the Examiner; he will be able to reproduce its typographical features, and present to Southern readers a fac simile of their old acquaintance; and he fervently trusts and resolutely pledges every resource of intellect and will to breathe again in this form of material resurrection the same spirit of fearless criticism, chivalrous contest and unhesitating encounter with abuse that animated it of old.

The undersigned owns some pledges of affection in this enterprise. His relations with the late John M. Daniel was close, intimate and affectionate to the day of his death. And it will indeed be a labor and aspiration of love if he can produce some echo from the grave of lamented friendship and rekindle from the ashes of the past and the dead some of the fire that illuminated the familiar pages of our literature.

In the present uncertainty of political questions—the dissappointment of oid issues and the imperfect development of the new—it would, of course, be impossible to state with precision the political career of the Examiner. But this may be said with safety; that it will use all its influence in restoring order, tranquility and prosperity to the people; and while aspiring to be brave and independent, it will avoid every scheme of faction and disorganization, devote itself to the works of conservatism, and sustain, at every risk, the present President of the United States as long as he fulfills those noble indications he has already given of planting again the rights of constitutional liberty in the South, setting his face against the Malignants of the North, and thus entitling himself to such common support of conservative men in all parts of the country as will secure the continuation of his wise and patriotic administration.

No pains or expense will be spared to make the Examiner the newspaper of the South. For every department of it the services of the most accomplished and active writers will be secured. Special correspondents will be posted in New York and Washington and other important centres of intelligence in the country. A former active editor of the old Examiner, Edward A. Pollard, will be employed as correspondent from Europe in which country he proposes to write a History of the War, and to form a familiar acquaintance with the politics of Europe, especially in connection with American questions and topicks. This correspondence will constitute a special feature of interest in our paper; it will enliven its columns from week to week with the productions of an animated pen; and it will afford our readers a singularly good opportunity to make themselves acquainted with cotemporary Europe, and to apprehend the growing interest of our foreign relations.

The undersigned was recently the editor of the Richmond Times, but in consequence of a disagreement with the part proprietor of that paper, he has been forced to leave it and appeal to the civil courts for his rights; and he now proposes to himself the nobler task of reviving a paper endeared to the South by many memories of the past, and associated with so much that is admirable in its heroick and literary name in history. He calls upon the old subscribers of the Examiner, from Virginia to Texas, to rally to its support, to renew their subscriptions, and to assist in the revival of a paper which has existed for three-quarters of a century, and which has ever been solicitous to honor truth and virtue, prompt to chastise abuses, and ambitious to defend and adorn the civilization and literature o the South.

Advertisements will be inserted on the same terms as published by the other Richmond papers.

The first number of the Examiner will contain a sketch of the life of the late John M. Daniel, whose name is historical in connection with the Virginia press, and than whom the annals of newspaper literature in America show few more extraordinary masters of style—certainly no greater master of vigorous prose in composition. The first numbers will also contain a full and complete account of the evacuation of Richmond, with all the particulars of the surrender of the city, the entry of the troops, the great conflagration, &c., taken from the advance sheets of E. A. Poland's "Fourth Year of the War," now in press. This account will be found intensely interesting; and aside from this consideration, every one should secure and preserve these numbers, as they will be valuable hereafter as affording a true and faithful report of what the South has had hitherto but the imperfect narratives which have been written and published in the Northern press.

The old contributors and correspondents of the Examiner are particularly requested to communicate with the undersigned.

All letters and communications of every character should be addressed to

H. RIVES POLLARD,

NOTICE.

MODEL SEWING MACHINE.

(From the New York Herald)

Prominent among the mechanical triumphs of this most ingenious age, common honesty compels us to notice the Empire Sewing Machine, commended as justly styled perfection itself. Useful as have been the various sewing machines, from time to time presented to the public, each one of them has been cursed with some radical defect, which detracts from general utility. Warned by the experience of his predecessors, the inventor of the Empire Machine has produced an instrument, combining all the advantages for which others are vaunted, and obviating every defect which can be attributed to them by the most fastidious critic.

The Empire Machine is a marvellous combination of simplicity, economy and perfect workmanship, being durable, free from liability to get out of order, noiseless, and easy of, operation. its mechanical contrivance is such as to secure stability, freedom from accident, and accuracy as to workmanship. The use of the patented shuttle and straight needle makes a stitch, which can neither ripp nor ravel, at the same time, it can operate perfectly upon every species of material from leather to cambric, with threads of cotton, linen or silk, from the finest to the coarsest number.

As the Empire Machine is gradually supplanting its more antique rivals, no one in want of a useful instrument of this description, be he or she tailor, coachmaker, dressmaker or seamstress, can do otherwise than secure one of these economical and inimitable machines, suited alike for family and manufacturing purposes. The office of the Empire Manufacturing Co. is at No. 536 Broadway, New York City, where they are now supplying these Empire Machines a prices far below the real value of the instrument.—New York Herald.
